Let's first look at

How do people make wine?

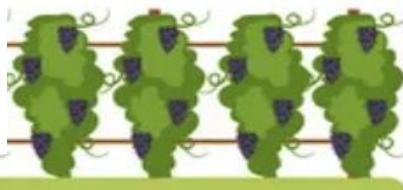

Wine is made from Grapes

1. Carrying: Grapes are carried over to crushing machine.
2. Crushing: Grapes are crushed to become meshed grape.
3. Pressing: Grape mesh is pressed to produce grape juice.
4. Fermentation: Grape juice is mixed with yeast for 21 days to become new wine.
5. Aging: New wine is stored in jars for further fermentation for one year to become old wine.
6. Clarification: Old wine is filtered.
7. Packaging: Filtered old wine is bottled for shopping center.

Because the old wine taste and smell more pleasing than the new wine, people always say “The old is better.” (Luke 5:39)

Tasting historic wines that have withstood decades, and even centuries, is a transcendent experience.

And no one after drinking old wine wants the new, for they say, ‘The old is better.’”

(Luke 5:39)

John 4:13 NIV

Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

(Jhn4:14 NIV)

John 7:37-38 NIV

On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him."

Now let's learn

If a wineskin is carefully maintained and properly used, the wineskin can last thousands of years.

However, the stretchability of wineskin will be significantly reduced after certain period of time.

Comparison Between New and Old Wineskins

#	Specification	New Wineskin (0--30 years old)	Old Wineskin (100 years old)
1	stretchability	★★★★★	★☆☆☆☆
2	softness	★★★★★	★☆☆☆☆
3	strength	★★★★★	★☆☆☆☆
4	insulation	★★★★★	★★★★★
5	durability	★★★★★	★★★★★

New Wine

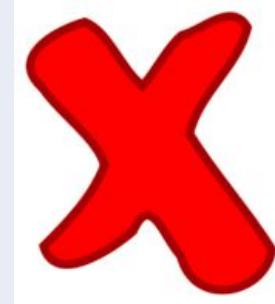

Old Wine

New Wineskin

Old Wineskin

- Because the new wine has stronger chemical reaction potential, and
- Because the old wineskin has less stretchability and softness,
- Hence, the new wine will burst the old skins; the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined.

Let Us Pray

Dear Heavenly Father,

Thank you for choosing us to be your children because of Jesus.
We love you; we belong to you.

We confess that we are sinners; we are easily attracted and persuaded in the world. We ask you not to lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. May you lead us to produce fruits in keeping with our repentance, to live out the new lifestyle that you wanted us.

The Kingdom, the Power and the Glory are yours.
Pray in name of Jesus, Amen.
